Shri Dilipbhai Bhakta Chairman BPKM spoke about the need of concentration among the present students and their requirement to face the circumstances. He conveyed his happiness for the leadership of UTU specifically Provost Dr. Shah and his joy for growth in the infrastructure of the university and student strength. He remembered the need and help of donation given by

Sri N.G. Patel and its uses in infrastructure of UTU. He also conveyed his gratitude for the achievements of UTU students and wished them good luck for their future.

Sri B.U. Patel expressed his heartfelt happiness at the growth of UTU as one of the best universities in Gujarat. He also asked the students to participate and fulfill if any lacunae is visible in the system. He expressed the need of integrity, sincerity and hard work in creating opportunity. He also expressed the need of giving opportunity for the right student and the need to take that student in right direction.

Shri Ganpatbhai Patel, chief patron of Ganpat University, shared his noble words. He compared the work done in UTU with “Satyagraha” of ‘Sardar’ Patel as this will affect multiple generations in the region. He made all the new graduates in the convocation centre to stand and thank- Parents (for love, hopes and writing cheques for their education), the teaching faculties (for sharing wisdom, knowledge and experience & efforts imparted), the donors (for building the campus of UTU and providing all the facilities), and all others at the last. He explained the students mixed emotions of Happiness, worrying of leaving, self-visions, regrets and unsaid/undone things from the campus. He advised the students not to settle for less than what they think they deserve and be the best at what you do. He stressed the uniqueness of each human being and described them as God’s master pieces. He shared his personal life choices and experiences with the students. He stressed that students should think outside the box, be confident of their decisions and get outside to multiply their value by taking chances. He described the need of a ‘Sarthak’ life than a successful life in today’s world. He wished the outgoing students luck for their life endeavors. Lastly, he wished everyone success and kindled to live a life of contentment.

The students were awarded with gold medals and merit certificates. A winsome address by the President, Shri Shailesh Patel, embraced the occasion even more. He incentivized the students by saying never to fear failure and have the ability to adjust and adapt in all the strata of life. He solicited the students to stay connected and contribute in shaping the new world. The guests were honored with a momento and the ceremony was concluded by rising for the national anthem. Dr. Ketan Ranch conveyed vote of thanks at 5th Convocation. The academic procession departed from Convocation Madap with all zeal and enthusiasm. Thereafter all dignitaries, deans, parents, students and faculty member part took a delicious special lunch organized by UTU and took their
