

Department of Physics
Uka Tarsadia University, Bardoli

Date: 14 February, 2024

Event Name: National Women's Day Celebration

Date: 13 February, 2024

Time: 11:00 AM to 12:30 PM

Venue: GD Room, B U Tarsadia Learning Resource Centre

Event organized by: Department of Physics and Mathematics UTU

Event coordinator: Dr. Kinjal Patel (Assistant Professor, UTU) and Ms. Namrata Mishra (Assistant Professor, UTU)

Total student participated in the event – 20 Female students from Department of Physics and Mathematics

Report

National Women's Day in India, observed on February 13th, celebrates Sarojini Naidu, a prominent freedom fighter, poet, and politician. As the first female President of the Indian National Congress and a state governor, Naidu's legacy resonates strongly. Her eloquent speeches and poignant poetry inspired countless Indians to advocate for liberty and social equality. On this day, Dr. Rozy Patel highlighted Naidu's remarkable journey, emphasizing her role as an emblem of Indian feminism. Naidu's literary prowess earned her the endearing title of the "Nightingale of India," symbolizing the beauty and power of her verse. Dr. Rozy Patel illuminated Naidu's indelible mark on India's struggle for independence, emphasizing her leadership and eloquence as guiding lights for future generations.

Handwritten signature