As a part of Ozone Day Celebration , an activity was organized for MBA students to make Eco Enzyme- A natural cleaner which helps to reduce pollutants in air and water. It was made by having a mixture of Jaggery, fruit and vegetable waste and water in 1:3:10 proportion. Information and importance regarding Eco Enzyme was explained to students first and then together they made it. It was a learning experience for both students and faculty members. Students are informed to spread awareness about Eco Enzyme in their neighborhood.
