On July 4, 2024, Uka Tarsadia University organized a one-day Teacher's Training Program at the Shrimad Hall that witnessed enthusiastic participation from 120 educators and 2 principals from RMVM school of the Valsad district. The program commenced with the university anthem followed by a welcome address by Ms. Arpita Vyas, teaching assistant in accountancy and taxation. Each attending educators were warmly greeted and offered a welcome kit. Mr. Parth Parmar, UTU's Public Relations Officer, provided valuable insights about the institution. Dr. Dinesh Shah, provost of Uka Tarsadia University, further provided valuable insights on UTU's history, establishment, objectives, funding, and overall journey.

Dr. Rozy Patel, Dean and Director of the Department of Humanities, was the expert speaker of the session. Various interactive activities, including video observations and creative writing exercises, inspired educators to explore new pedagogical approaches. The theme of her talk was 'Fragile - Handle with Care' and 'Skill Sets for 2030'.

Following a lunch at Pushpam Girls Hostel, participants went for a campus visit. The event concluded with an exchange of hugs among participants, dancing, a tea break and group photographs, capturing the spirit of friendship, collaboration and learning fostered throughout the day.

The Teacher's Training Program at Uka Tarsadia University proved to be an enriching experience, equipping educators with innovative strategies and insights to enhance their teaching practices.
