B. Purpose:

- It develops social feeling in student.
- Policemen hardly get a chance to go home and celebrate festivals with their family.
- We think such initiatives help in changing the existent mindset about the police.

C. Activity carried out:

- Announcing to students about swaraj rakhi.
- Buy swaraj rakhi from poor girls who made rakhi by using charkha for fulfill their day to day needs.
- We get permission from police station for celebrate rakhi.
- We reach police station and communicate with them and tied rakhi.
- After that we carried out the photo session with them and they give gift to the girls.

D. Outcome of activity:

- Giving new meaning to the festival, the girls tied rakhi to the Mahuva police to the iterate their trust in the force.
- The policemen, in turn, assured their safety and security.
- It was a nice feeling to tie rakhi to policemen and the initiative undoubtedly instilled confidence and strengthened our faith in the police. Such initiatives are beneficial for us and now we can reach to the policemen without hesitation in case of any trouble.
