Teaching Basic Computer Application skills to the tiny tots of Kanai Primary School

On 2nd September 2016, Random Acts of Kindness Club of B. V. Patel Institute organized one hour training session on basics of computer application like paint, notepad and typing for 29 kids of Kanai Primary School. 50 students of T.Y.B.Com (Computer Application) involved in this activity and taught them about computer and how computer works.

The learners and teachers both were thrilled with this activity. The students realized the problem one faces when teaching others. The kids were very happy to try their hands on computer and the attention paid to them.
