One Day Value-Based Seminar on Shrimad Raj Chandra's Philosophy

On 5th January 2017, as a tribute to our donor late Shri Bhuladada on his one month Shrandhanjali/Punyatithi, Literary Club of UTU organized 'One Day Value-Based Seminar on Shrimad Raj Chandra's Philosophy'. They also held 'Book Review Competition' and 'Atmasiddhi Shastra' recitation Competition' in this seminar. B. V Patel Institute of Business Management, Computer and Information Technology encouraged their students to take part in seminar for holistic development of students. Students voluntarily took this opportunity for growing their spirituality. The event was organized at Shrimad Hall, UTU.

Students of TYBBA & TYB.Com (Comp.App.) also participated in Book Review competition and Recitation competition. This session helped the students to provoke their thought process in the region of spirituality, for making themselves a better person and a responsible citizen of the country. Students were given participation certificate for attending the seminar and prizes were given students who participated in competition to encourage them.
