RAK CLUB: DISTRIBUTION OF NOTEBOOKS AND STATIONARY TO NEEDY STUDENTS

Random Acts of Kindness Club of B. V. Patel Institute continues its charity work around the year. All the students of BBA, B.Com and M.Com contributed in this charity by donating notebooks, which they purchased from their pocket money. On the one hand this act is beneficial to the marginalized section of the society and on the other it instills the feeling of social responsibility among the youngsters studying at the institute.

Initially at the beginning of current academic year, it has started by distributing more than 500 note books, pencils, sharpeners and erasers to the kids of Kanai Primary School and Goji Asharam Schools benefitted from this activity.
