Teacher's Day Celebration

Teacher's Day was organised by the students of B.V. Patel Institute of BMC & IT for their teachers on the occasion of birth day of Dr. Sarvapalli Radhakrishnan. Before the formal function, all the teachers were enjoyed Marwadi Cuisine organised by students in authentic way.

The formal function, organised at Manjula Hall, has started at 12:30 pm with the dashing entries of all the teachers. The students cheered them with claps, whoops and flash lights. Function started with the traditional UTU way, with UTU anthem. Sarswati Vandana has been recited by Jesal for the blessings of the Goddess Sarswati. Many funny and entertaining tasks were performed by the students and teachers. The function reached at the closing note with the song recitation at 3:30 pm. The students made the teachers to cut the cake at the department and students gifted mementoes to each teacher with warm hearts. It was a memorizing moment for everyone.
