

Date: 31/12/2011

Celebration of 31st December

The Cultural Club and the Management Club of B.V. Patel Institute of Business Management Computer and Information Technology organized an year ending celebration on 31st December 2011. The theme was “Feel Good, Smile and Share Happiness”.

Morning was cool, colourful and pleasant. The celebration started with prayer, seeking the blessings of God. Faculty members distributed balloons, flowers and gift packets to all the students. Thereafter students assembled in to the hall and exchanged gifts with one another. They expressed their feelings of love and happiness by offering balloons and flowers to one another. The end of the event saw the announcement of ‘Rose Prince and Princess’ as well as the ‘Balloon Prince’.

Students from all the streams participated with zeal and vigour in fancy dress competition and made the celebration memorable by walking on the ramp. Chief guests of the event- the secretary of BPKM- Mr. Kirit Patel and CEO of the University- Dr. D.R. Shah appreciated and motivated the students for their gala participation. The director of the institute Mrs. Poonam Mittal welcomed the dignitaries with flowers and presented them chocolates, masks, and other gifts. Staff members and faculty also received gifts from her. Lunch was followed by the game of housie that saw many students winning fabulous prizes.

Participation in management games with full of gusto was great attraction for students who bagged many prizes.

The conclusion of the programme saw every one rocking the dance floor and the day ended with sweet memories of pastry, chocolates and exchange of well wishes for the coming year.