

Fun Fair – 2012

A fun fair was organized on 26th January 2012. It comprised a variety of food and games stalls that were managed by students and faculty members. BPKM president Shri Bhagukaka inaugurated the programme by trying his luck at all the stalls of fun fair. He was accompanied by directors and staff members of other department. Fun fair had 11 food stalls and 14 fun game parlors.

Managerial and entrepreneurial skills of students as well as teachers were seen during the entire event. The fun fair was grand success and we ran out of coupons. The entire campus community tried their luck and played different games. The mouth watering food stalls had a long queue of food lovers.

The fun game stalls were great attractions for students. Out of 14 games stalls the most crowded and popular was '7 Up- 7 Down' where final year B.Com student Milan Rabari displayed excellent salesman skills and attracted highest number of players. Other students were also seen applying their marketing skills and strategies.

Pan stall and Nail Art Parlor were other attractions of the day. Hitesh and Chirag also demonstrated their salesmen abilities while selling Munchurian and Maggi. It was pure fun and pleasure for the organizers as well as visitors besides a great learning experience.

Fun Fair – 2012

(An Overview)

(Nipam trying Pot Making)

(Nail Art And Mehndi Stall)

(Faculty serving Papdi Chat Stall)

(Pani Puri Stall)

(Jatin Sir enjoying Fun Fair)

