

Date: 15/8/2011

Independence Day Celebration

The college joined the campus to celebrate Independence Day celebration on 15th August 2011. The campus resounded with patriotic songs since early morning. The tri-colour was unfurled by the Chief Guest Shri Bhagubhai Patel. In his address, he stressed the importance of education and training to larger requirement of economy. He said that educational institutions should serve the requirements of the society. He also emphasized on continuous innovation in teaching-learning process to achieve the goals set by founding fathers of the Bardoli Pradesh Kelavani Mandal.

The formal function was followed by refreshment being served to everybody.