An Interaction with Alumnus

Shri Rakesh Rajpurohit a BBA alumnus interacted with students of second year BBA and B.Com on 18/8/2012. Rakesh told the gathering that this college was one of the best and always tried to develop the hidden potential of its students. He asked them to seriously follow the instructions and advise of the faculty members because these learning prove very useful when pursuing higher education. He narrated that due to the experiences he had at this institutes he was able to bag the first prize in inter college competition at Pune where he was currently pursuing his second year of MBA. His project work on Corporate Governance had also been adjudged the best among the class because he had applied all the presentation techniques learnt during his three year stay at B.V. Patel Institute.

He asked the students to participate in all the activities organized by the college in order to learn organizing skills, leadership abilities and understand the importance of being a responsible person. He pleaded to all that they should abide the director's instructions to wear helmet when driving a motorbike and also refrain from commuting to college on bikes if they do not have a driving license and happened to be a student of first year.

He told that he was thankful for various kindness activities that were initiated at the Institute. He informed that he has taken the lead to start one Random Acts of Kindness Club at Pune. The gathering listened to Rakesh Rajpurohit intently with great interest.
