

Seminar on Prevention of Sexual Harassment on Women

Sexual Harassment at workplace is a violation of women's right to gender equality, life and liberty. It creates an insecure and hostile work environment, which discourages women's participation in work, thereby adversely affecting their economic empowerment and the goal of inclusive growth.

In this connection the Sexual Harassment Prevention Cell of the Institute organized on Seminar on Prevention of Sexual Harassment on 4/2/2014. Sahiyar Stree Sangathan from Vadodara was invited for conducting the seminar. 75 girl students and faculty members participated in the programme. The first session comprised lecture, video clippings and discussions on the topic. All were apprised about legal provisions and desired ways of responding to different unpleasant situations in order not to become a victim of this evil prevalent in our society 20 members were imparted practical training through case study method in the second session. Entire programme was highly interactive and informative.

