

UKA TARSADIA UNIVERSITY

Shrimad Rajchandra College of Physiotherapy

Report of 7th Uth Fest 2023

Shrimad Rajchandra College of Physiotherapy WON the TROPHY for 7th Youth festival 2023.

The 7th Uth Fest, organized at our university, was a grand and memorable event that brought together students from various colleges to showcase their talents, engage in healthy competition, and celebrate the spirit of youth. The fest, held over three days, was a vibrant blend of cultural, theatre, art, and literary activities that created an electrifying atmosphere on campus.

The cultural segment of the fest was a dazzling display of performances ranging from dance, music, drama, and fashion shows. Students enthralled the audience with their mesmerizing dance moves, soulful music renditions, and captivating theatrical performances. The fashion show was a highlight of the event, with participants strutting down the ramp in their stylish attire, showcasing their creativity and fashion sense.

The literary segment of the fest was equally engaging, with quiz competitions, debates, Elocution, Extempore, Film review, and Ad making on various topics. Students exhibited their knowledge and critical thinking skills, engaging in thought-provoking discussions and debates on pertinent issues. The quiz competitions tested the participants' general awareness, logical reasoning, and quick-thinking abilities, making for an intellectually stimulating experience.

Apart from these competitions, the fest also had art competitions including Cartooning, Collage making, installation, poster making, on-spot painting, brushless painting, rangoli, spot photography, mehendi, and clay modeling. Students showcased their inherent artists and made the fest more colorful with their imagination and art.

The 7th Uth Fest was a resounding success, leaving a lasting impression on everyone who participated. It fostered a sense of camaraderie among students from diverse backgrounds, encouraged healthy competition, and provided a platform for students to showcase their talents and skills. The fest was a true celebration of youth and their limitless potential, making it a cherished memory for years to come

We would also like to express our appreciation to all the participants who may not have won but showed exemplary sportsmanship and enthusiasm throughout the event. Your participation and effort were equally valuable, and we commend your spirit of competition and camaraderie. We are also grateful to the teachers, staff, and volunteers who worked tirelessly behind the scenes to ensure the smooth organization of the youth fest.

We would like to extend a special word of congratulations to all the winners of the competitions. Your exceptional talent and perseverance in showcasing your skills have earned you well-deserved recognition and applause. Your performances were truly remarkable, and we are proud of your achievements.
